

DTAA Professional Membership Preparation and Reflective Practice Day

Saturday June 23, 9.30 – 5.00pm

Abbotsford Convent Melbourne Dorm 1, Rosina Building, 1 St Helior Street, Abbotsford, Melbourne.

The DTAA is inviting members to a Professional Membership Preparation and Reflective Practice Day. 9.30am and 1.30pm. There will be a supervision session led by Fran Ostroburski and Jane Guthrie at a cost of $70 for 4 hours of supervision or $60 concession. The two hour afternoon session is free following a shared lunch. In the afternoon the committee will provide information and assistance to associate members who would like to become professional members.

This strategic initiative from the Association is aimed at encouraging eligible members to become Professional Members, to increase the professional Membership number, to benefit the profession and provide successful candidates with increased professional standing.

Morning from 9.30 – 1.30 Group supervision

Reflective practice supervision opportunities for all members: the 4 hours can be counted towards hours needed to become a professional member, or if the person is a professional member already, then the hours needed to maintain Professional Membership status of the DTAA, PACFA registration/ renewal, or counted as professional development.

Networking lunch: Participants are invited to bring lunch to share 1.30 – 2.30pm

Professional Membership mentoring - 2.30 -4 - 30 pm:

The afternoon session is for prospective Professional Members, or anyone who wants to stay on and join in. The DTAA's Professional Membership Committee will devote their time to providing information and responding to questions. Those participants wanting to work towards professional membership status are encouraged to bring their application documents with them so that they can be assisted with areas of concern.

This session is free.

Prospective Professional Members attending will be invited to participate in an ongoing series of peer mentoring sessions over the next few months to encourage applications to be submitted.
