

Professional Practice/Supervision Day

10am to 5.00pm (6 supervision hours)

22nd June 2014

Open to all members and will involve experiential supervision aimed at encouraging reflective practice and small group and large group discussion. Please come with an issue or issues you are prepared to discuss and reflect upon. Supervision hours during the day can be counted towards hours needed to become a professional member, or for current professional members, the hours needed to maintain professional membership status of the DTAA, PACFA registration/renewal, or professional development.

Light refreshments provided.

The venue, Abbotsford Convent

1 st Helier street Abbotsford, the Oratory, off the courtyard behind Rosina building.

The convent has lovely gardens and grounds that sweep down to the Yarra River. The setting was enjoyed for thousands of years by the Wurundjeri people, for whom the nearby junction of the Yarra River and Merri Creek was an important meeting point. Melway reference 44 G5, Parking in St Helier Street
