

Reflective Practice – Supervision Day

Take this opportunity to build up your supervision hours and be involved in a sharing with your peers

Sunday June 16, 9.30am registration for 10.00 am – 5.00 pm

At: Abbotsford Convent Melbourne Dorm 2, Rosina Building
1, St Heliers Street, Abbotsford, Melbourne.

The day is planned to provide an opportunity for people who need supervision hours to be able to increase them. We have in mind DTAA members who may need extra hours prior to the end of the financial year, as well as assisting eligible members to work towards their Professional Membership status. The DTAA is wanting to increase its professional membership numbers as it is essential that we do this to ensure the future of dmt in Australia - it is important that we aim to benefit the profession at large by providing successful candidates with increased professional standing.

The morning will focus on reflective practice experientially, while the afternoon session will provide the opportunity for more verbally oriented presentations and feedback. For those who do not require further supervision opportunities for this year the hours can be counted as professional development.

An opportunity for those working on becoming professional members to ask questions will be provided.

Morning session 10am - 1.0pm and afternoon, 2.0 - 5.0pm

The day is open to all members and will provide experiential supervision aimed at encouraging reflective practice, in small and large group situations. Discussion will be led by Fran Ostrobrurski and Jane Guthrie.

Please note: particularly for the afternoon session, participants need to come with an issue or issues they are prepared to discuss and reflect upon.

Cost: an incredibly modest $60 for the day or $50 concession.
